DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's submittal of an amendment was received on August 9, 2005, wherein claims 14, 17 and 20-21 were amended, claim 15 was cancelled and new claims 22-23 were added.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 22-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Eckstrum (US Patent 5,472,219) in view of Norman (US Patent 4,815,569). Eckstrum discloses a wheeled creeper (10) for use on a support surface, the wheeled creeper comprising a frame (11); a platform (12) mounted on said frame; a plurality of swivelable casters (13) supporting the frame; and a braking device comprising a plurality of brake shoes (15) and a linkage including a plurality of mounting rods (See Fig. 7, the cross bars spanning between the frame rails), a plurality of levers (19), a tie rod (14) and a handle (18). Eckstrum does not disclose the brake shoes pivoting between engaged and disengaged positions. Norman discloses a brake mechanism that is pivoted between an engaged and disengaged position. At the time of the invention, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in this art to pivot the brake shoes disclosed in Eckstrum between an engaged and disengaged position in view of the teaching of Norman. The motivation for doing so would have been to allow the user to provide a greater braking force against the supporting surface.

Regarding claim 23, the combination of Eckstrum and Norman would disclose wherein when said braking device is in said engaged position the creeper is deterred from rolling movement, and when said braking device is in said disengaged position the creeper is free to roll on the support surface.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2, 4-11, 14 and 16-21 are allowed over the prior art.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 22-23 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 3618

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
